

WHO HAS A DISABILITY IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY, MARYLAND? - AN OVERVIEW

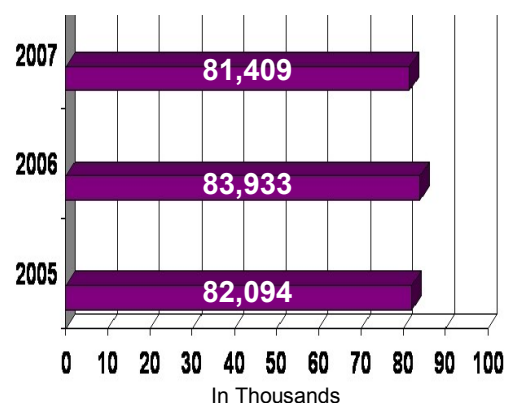

The U.S. Census Bureau Census, 2000, estimated that there were 186,580 persons living in Montgomery County with a disability. Nationally, it is estimated people with disabilities make up 19.8% of the total population. According to a 2007 American Community Survey conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau, 15% of Americans aged 5 years and over have a disability. In Montgomery County, 9.5% of the residents self-identified as having a disability, which makes the difference between estimated and self-reported disability. The number of disabled individuals aged 65 years and over increased by 2,229 people since last year. These figures excluded individuals who reside in nursing homes or other institutions. The Census Bureau defines disability as a long-lasting sensory, physical, mental, or emotional condition or conditions that make it difficult for a person to do functional or participatory activities such as seeing, hearing, walking, climbing stairs, learning, remembering, concentrating, dressing, bathing, going outside the home, or working at a job.
